Dear Parent/Carer

Question Time

The White Ribbon Campaign Group at Larbert High School would like to invite to you to attend our very own version of Question Time on Monday 10 December. Doors open at 7pm and the lively debate will commence at 7.30pm. The debate will be held in the Assembly Hall – you can enter the building via the doors at the Max Entrance. There will be post-debate refreshments available, which will allow you to continue the debate in a more informal atmosphere.

The event is now running into its 3rd year and this year the debate promises to be as lively as ever. The panel will include various political figures including Tommy Sheridan (Solidarity), Angus Macdonald (SNP) and Monica Lennon (Scottish Labour) – the debate will be chaired by Fraser Johnston (Pride of Britain 2017 winner). The topics which the pupils have decided to focus on are Brexit, Domestic Abuse and Education - topics which are prevalent in the current news. Members of the audience will be encouraged to participate in the debate, so have your questions ready.

Tickets will be sold at the door for a suggested donation of £2; all proceeds will go to Strathcarron Hospice, a very worthwhile cause.

We look forward to seeing you there.

Yours sincerely
